Traditions of Fabergé Silk Russian Shawls

The Russian designers of this natural silk shawl have truly outdone themselves, making the shawl an instant classic! The elegant patterns, the original theme, rooted in the traditions of formal aristocratic tea parties, and the bright color palette, chosen in happy, jovial hues, make it an elegant accessory to any monochromatic outfit. Also makes a wonderful Russian-styled gift!

Made exclusively for St-Petersburg, USA

COLLECTIBLE
ITEMS

Holidays → Easter → Fabergé Style

Collectible out-of-print edition!

This magnificent book is dedicated to Carl Fabergé's life and creative work, and to the unique Easter eggs that immortalized his name.

Peter Carl Fabergé was a Russian jeweler, best known for the famous Fabergé eggs, made in the style of traditional Easter eggs, but using precious metals and gemstones, rather than more mundane materials.

Peter Carl Fabergé got his very first order for the Easter Egg in 1855, when the Russian Emperor Alexander III wanted to make a special gift for his wife, the Empress Maria Fedorovna.

This first Easter Egg, the Hen Egg, marked the beginning of one of the most beautiful historical Russian traditions. Since then, the famous jeweler delivered one or more of his gorgeous surprise eggs to the Imperial Family every following Easter, creating a tradition that became famous the world over.

Imperial Porcelain

Russian Porcelain → Imperial Porcelain

St-Petersburg GTH is the exclusive distributor of all Imperial Porcelain Factory Products in the US and Canada

The process of making fine porcelain products is extremely complicated. For example, making just one porcelain cup entails undertaking up to 80 different operations. All-in-all, the manufactory retains and guards the original technology of producing classical fine china, developed back in the 18th century by D. I. Vinogradov.

The true, the ultimate joy from art is the pride of creation. It is the joy of finding the perfect forms, or shapes, out of the amorphousness of the initial ideas and making them a reality.

STRADIVARI THROW BLANKET

100% merino wool, 67x79"
$99.99

Due to the complex structure of each strand, merino wool possesses a wide range of advantages over any synthetic fibers.

Merino wool has been successfully used for millennia in many different climates around the planet: it performed wonderfully in sub-zero temperatures of the arctic climate, while being just as useful in the subtropical climate, and everywhere in-between. Invented by nature, proven by the thousands of years of use, to many, merino wool is truly in the league of its own!

WOOL THROW BLANKET

Made in Mongolia
80% wool, 20% cashmere, 50x70"
$99.99

No other material can be as soft, delicate, light, and warm, as cashmere – a truly unique natural fiber. Because there is no allergy possible to this unbelievably soft and comfortable material, the number of fans of cashmere around the globe grows daily.

More tender than silk, cashmere does not irritate the skin, does not roll into little balls on the face of the material, and does not shed. It is also surprising that such a delicate material is extremely durable and even withstands machine washing!

The high quality natural wool, and its numerous advantages, will not only please you with their obvious aesthetic qualities, but will also keep you warm and comfortable.

The New Zealand wool is an optimal material for making exceptionally soft and warm, all-natural blankets. The world over, the wool from New Zealand is considered to be among the very best. That is why blankets, such as these, are in very high demand in many countries. Frankly, when it comes to warm, all-natural blankets, does it ever get better than New Zealand wool blankets?

CAMEL WOOL PLAID-BLANKET

100% camel wool

The secret to the unique properties of camel wool lies in each strand of this material, or more precisely, in the hollowness of each strand, filled with air. Moreover, the inner surface of camel wool strands easily absorbs moisture, while the outer surface is great at repelling moisture!

Finally, the concentration of lanolin in camel wool exceeds that of most other kinds of wool, making it very therapeutic, as this animal wax melts at body temperature, getting absorbed by the body, increasing lanolin's beneficial properties.

...Event planning has always been a great passion of mine. When I host parties at my restaurants I want to make sure they are unique and interesting enough so that people can walk away with something special. People need to have that same feeling when they walk out of a store.

One of my favorite stores that offers me that something special is called St-Petersburg, located on 5th avenue in Manhattan. I'll visit them and I'll get an amazing variety of Russian accessories. They change their collections regularly so I always have plenty of quality items to choose from.

If you're looking for a great accessory to rock to any event, Saint-Petersburg should be your go to boutique. My personal favorites are Russian Shawls. They're a great piece for any day and perfect for the Russian themed parties I host at both of my restaurants. Saint-Petersburg always provides us with the perfect accessories and decorations that make for a great party.
